

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the television production position at your company. As a senior at Rowan University graduating in the spring semester with a Bachelor of Arts in Radio, Television, and Film from Rowan University, I am eager to bring my education and work experience.

Throughout my academic career, I have taken a variety of courses related to television production, including T.V. Productions, Client-Based Media Productions, and Techniques of Documentary Film Production. My coursework has provided me with a solid foundation in the technical and creative aspects of television production, and I am confident that I have the skills necessary to succeed in this field.

In addition to my education, I bring a diverse background in various customer-facing roles, including my experience as a childcare provider and housekeeper. These experiences have taught me the importance of strong communication and interpersonal skills, and have given me the ability to work well under pressure and in fast-paced environments. My previous roles have also taught me the importance of attention to detail, time management, and leadership, all of which are valuable skills in the television production industry.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my skills and experience to your company and help contribute to your continued success. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss my qualifications in an interview further.

Sincerely,

Breanna Robinson
